FRENCH PACT TO BE GIVEN SOON

President Indicates Treaty May Go To Senate Today

WILL NOT GO HIMSELF

Wilson Visits Capitol And Confers With Democratic Senators.—Discusses Tour of Country.

Senators who conferred with President Wilson during his visit to the Capitol late yesterday said that the President planned to submit immediately, probably today, the French treaty, under which the United States and Great Britain would aid France in event of aggression by Germany.

President Wilson remained at the Capitol about an hour, engaging in discussion with Democratic Senators of many questions regarding the peace treaty.

No indication was given by the President, Senators said, regarding when he may give further information to the Senate on the Shantung provision of the treaty. The question of reservations, it was said, was only briefly discused.

It was understood that the President would not appear before the Senate to present the French treaty, as he had indicated in his address presenting the peace treaty, but that would be sent to the Senate as a communication from the President.

The President also discussed his plans to tour the country for the treaty and is understood to have intimated that the trip might not be made as soon as had been expected. Senators got the impression that the President was holding in abeyance plans for starting the trip but it was said that Mr. Wilson seemed to be in no doubt that he would go before the country sooner or later.

Before going to the Capitol the President conferred with a number of Democratic Senator at the White House.

Seantrs Martin and Bankhead, of Alabama, are the only surviving officers who served in the Confederate army left in the Senate.

CONGRESS RECESSES

After nearly two hours' debate and while the temperature in the chamber was hovering around the 100 mark, the House yesterday voted to repeal the 10 per cent. tax on soda water and ice cream.

The House also passed, without a record vote, the bill for reduction of the war tax on fruit juices as urged by Western producers. Members said the tax, fixed at 2 cents a gallon, was a flat reduction from 28 cents, estimated. All amendments were rejected from the bill, which applies to non alcoholic beverages, including loganberry, grape and apple juice.

Without a a record vote the House adopted a resolution providing for a recess from August 2 to September 2. During this time the Senate is expected to be continuously at work on the peace treaty. The Senate approved the House recess resolution without discussion.

CHICAGO MAYOR ASKS FOR TROOPS

Police Unable To Quell Race Riots Which Break Out Afresh

WHITE MAN IS KILLED

Negroes Are Armed With Knives And Guns And Throng Streets—Riots Spread Over City.

Chicago, July 29.—Rioting spread to the downtown business district early today and threatened to create a situation that may result in all Chicago being placed under martial law before nightfall. The situation is admittedly getting beyond the control of the police and it seemed practically certain this morning that the calling out of State troops would be necessary.

Chicago July 29.—Mayor Thompson appealed last night to Gov. Frank O. Lowden to mobilize a regiment of National Guardsmen for immediate service in Chicago's black belt where sporadic rioting has been in progress since Saturday afternoon and which already has resulted in the death of one negro serious injury to a number of negroes and whites and injury to cores of others.

The action of Mayor Thompson it was stated was taken only after it police force was inadequate to maintain order in the five-mile area where as many as 10 clashes between whites and blacks had developed in an hour.

Several hundred negroes, many of them flashing knives and guns, congregated early last night near South State street and Thirty-fifth. After numerous minor fights most of them were dispersed. In one of these outbreaks a white man was reported stabbed to death.

In the meantime, special police and detectives had cleared other districts where the outbreaks had become frequent during the day. The police said the negroes were terror-stricken and appeared on the streets only in groups which gathered in alleys and then ran at full speed to their destinations.

The police are making a special effort to break up secret meetings of the negroes in halls and flat buildings.

Numerous riot calls were turned in early lat night, but in a majority of cases the clashes involved only a score or more of blacks and whites.

GIRLS TEETH MARKS

She Bit Hold-up Man and When Police Got Chauffeur He Showed Them

Philadelphia July 29.—Identified by the teeth marks of his intended victim, James B. O'Connell, 27 years old, of Summer Grove road, Radnor, has been hld by Squire Buckland, of Bryn Mawr, under $800 bail for court on a charge of having held up Miss Gertrude Dever, daughter of Daniel Dever.

O'Connell was a chauffeur for Frank T. Griswold, Newtown Square Radnor. The Devers are at present occupying their summer home at Radnor. According to Miss Dever, she was returning from a visit to friends in the city late Tuesday night. She insisted on making the way from the Sixty-ninth street terminal alone.

After she had walked along the road from the station for a half mile she was accosted by a man who wanted to know the way to a certain point She answered him and then attempted to let him pass. Instead of going on his way the man grasped her, she said, and pressing a revolver to her side, put his arm about her waist.

Miss Dever, who is of athletic build threw the revolver to one side, at the same time catching the man's hand in her mouth. She bit as hard as she could, causing the fellow to release his hold. Then she started to pummel him until he took to his heels. The young woman then continued to her home.

When the Radnor police got on the trail, the clues led to the Griswold home, where O'Connell was watering the lawn. He was arrested and taken before Squire Buckland. In court O'Connell, with his hand bandaged, was asked how he got the wound. He said he turned it on an automobile radiator.

He was forced to remove the bandages, displaying the marks declared to have been made by Miss Dever's teeth. He then said he had stopped her, thinking she was some one he knew and that he only intended to startle her "for fun."

NO ICE SHORTAGE IN THIS CITY

Two Plants of Mutual Ice Company Manufacture Sufficient Supply

AMPLE SURPLUS HERE

Many Washingtonians, Where Shortage Prevails, Journey Here in Autos and Get Ice.

There is no likelihood of an ice shortage here according to statements made by representatives of the Mutual Ice Company. This afternoon. This concern operates two big plants, one of the foot of Cameron street and the other at the Potomac railroad yards.

Both plants are amply adequate with their daily output not only to supply Alexandria but also the surrounding territory it is stated.

The demand for ice during the past week has been enormous, but never has there being an chance of an ice famine here it is stated.

The surplus supply of ice kept in storage has thus far never been really low and Alexandrians are congratulating themselves that the plants here are amply adequate to meet the abormanal demand being made for the ice during this exceedingly hot spell.

Washington at the present time is threatened with an ice famine and the supply to each customer has greatly been reduced with a view of seeing that there is an equal distribution of ice in that city.

Owing to the scarcity of ice in Washington hundreds of Washingtonians during the past few days have motored to Alexandria and procured in at the different icing stations here.

WHITE WOMAN ATTACKED

Negro Shot Following Attempted Assault Near Perryman, Md.

Belair, Md., July 29.—Following an attack upon Mrs. Mary Wolfinger, who was acting as watchman at a Pennsylvania Railroad crossing between Short Lane and Perryman, Charles Holmes, colored, was probably fatally shot about 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning by Richard Jewens of Perryman, a foreman on the railroad in an effort to capture the negro The latter is in the Havre de Grace Hospital and State's Attorney McComas states his death may be expected at any time.

Mrs. Wolfinger, who was acting as watchman at the crossing in the absence of her husband, was approached by Holmes, and becoming frightened at his manner she sought refuge in the watchman's box and fastened the door. The negro, it is alleged, endeavored to force an entrance and being unsuccessful he hurled a stone at the woman through the window. Mrs. Wolfinger seized a pistol and fired at the negro but failed to hit him. After he had beat a hasty retreat in the direction of Perryman, she telephoned to the operator in the tower at that place relating the circumstances to him and telling him the negro was running up the railroad in that direction.

Richard Jewens and James Thompson, of Perryman, employes of the railroad company, happened to be near the tower and being informed of the affair secured pistols and hastened to meet the negro. They soon met him and commanded him to halt and throw up his hands. When he continued toward them Jewens fired a shot over the negroes head. This caused the negro to dart into a cornfield. As he did so Jewens shot him in the back, the bullet entering the kidneys. He fell to the ground.

State's Attorney McComas and Sheriff Sheridan went to the institution and took Holmes' dying deposition in which he denied attacking Mrs. Wolfinger. His condition is critical.

Nothing is known about the negro as he is said to be a stranger in the county. The affair has caused considerable feeling among the citizens in and around Perryman and Aberdeen.

IN MEMORIAM

In remembrance of my precious sister, Elsie Johnson, who departed this life July 29, 1918.

You suffered much you murmured not,
I watched you day by day,
Until at last with a broken heart,
I saw you pass away.
More each day I mourn for you dear sister,
But not with outward show.
For the heart that mourns sincerely, mourns silently and slow.
Come to me my angel sister,
Wrap your wings around me tight
Dearest sister; ask God to comfort,
Your broken hearted sister tonight.

NEARING THE END OF JULY

The month of July, 1919, is drawing to a close. Only two more days of this torrid month remain. The temperature has been high nearly all the month, and the last week has been especially torrid.

The temperature yesterday and last night was stifling, although a breeze from the north prevailed during the day. It was, however, far from refreshing, and during the lulls in the flaws the heat was oppressive. As the day neared its close the zephyrs virtually ceased, and the perspiration rolled freely off man and beast. It was far into the night before most people sought sleep, which, however, was almost impossible under the prevailing conditions. Humanity turned from side to side in attempts to close their eyes in slumber, while cross children, rendered uncomfortable by the heat, tossed and fretted throughout the night. A large majority arose this morning unrefreshed to face another day which gave every indication of being a scorcher.

The entire eastern section of the country has been in the grip of the prevailing "sizzard." Deaths from heat are reported in various cities, while hundreds have been prostrated by the high temperature.

So far no fatalities have occurred in Alexandria, nor have any prostrations been reported. All, however, forced to expose themselves should take every precaution, as sunstrokes have occurred in our city. Health boards issue rules which are said to prevent cases of coup de soleil. Some suggest that but little should be eaten during the prevalence of hot waves. Others, however, believe we should eat an abundance of nourishing food, which, they think, keeps the fires of life at a point which minimizes the danger of sunstroke.

The best safeguard is to keep out of the sun as much as possible, although in many cases persons employed indoors have fallen victims to heat.

(PAID ADVERTISEMENT)

On Tuesday, August 5, 1919, there is to be held a Democratic primary at which time a State Senator is to be elected from this District. C. J. Meetze and Walter T. Oliver are the candidates.

In determining their fitness to serve in this office, it is important that the public should be fully informed of certain facts.

I refer to the action of the Virginia State Bar Association which made public condemnation of Mr. Oliver's conduct. Here follows a record of what transpired at that meeting:

Extract from the report of the Executive Committee to the Virginia State Bar Association at its annual meting held at Richmond, Virginia, on May 15-17, 1919.

"At its meeting in January, the Secretary brought to the attention of the Committee correspondence in regard to the conduct of Walter T. Oliver, a member of the bar, of Fairfax County, wherein he was accused of making charge for services rendered as attorney to registrants under the Federal Draft Laws, which correspondence had been referred to the Committee by the Adjutant General of Virginia, in his letter of November 16, 1918, and although the Committee found Mr. Oliver guilty of unprofessional conduct, without authority to act in the premises, by reason of the fact that Mr. Oliver is not a member of the Association, it passed the following resolution:

'The Committee makes this record of its condemnation of the practices reported, as being not in accord with the ethical principles which should and do prevail in this Commonwealth among the reputable members of the bar, but owing to the fact that the person charged with this violation of the proprieties of the profession is not a member of this Association, we are without authority to exercise such disciplinary measures as would otherwise be appropriated, and the Secretary is instructed to notify the Adjutant General accordingly.'

The above is a correct copy.

Jno. B. Minor, Secretary.

Fortunately, the people of this district have ample authority to exercise appropriate disciplinary measures. They can snow Mr. Oliver under an avalanche of votes. Surely we are not so forgetful of the heroes of the war and the imperishable principles for which they fought and died that we can now reward a man who refused them the voluntary reward of his advice and help. Surely we cannot believe that a man, lacking in public spirit during our darkest hours and in the moment of our greatest national crisis, has sufficient public spirit now to make a public servant.

In the greatest test Mr. Oliver failed the people. The people should fail him now.

179-1p. J. Randall Caton.

THE CAUSE OF THE RIOTS

A Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says the recent riots in Washington was caused by bootleggers in that city. Among other things the correspondent says:

"It may surprise a great many people to learn that bootlegging is at the bottom of all the trouble.

"Bootlegging, since Washington went dry, nearly two years ago, has been carried on exclusively by negroes—men and women. These whisky runners not only have grown immensely rich, but they have become contemptuous of all law.

"The profits of their illegal trade have enabled them to buy high-powered automobiles. These cars were used to run the blockade between Baltimore and Washington. The occupants of the cars always were heavily armed and whenever challenged by the border police a pistol battle invariably resulted.

"A careful inquiry into the causes of the riots of last week develops the fact that they were started by a few soldiers, sailors and marines. These soldiers, sailors and marines had invaded the southwest section of the city known as the home of the bootleggers. There they had been solicited by colored men who offered liquor for sale. The soldiers, sailors and marines had gladly parted with $3 each for half pint lots of supposed blockade whisky.

"After much secret bargaining they emerged from the lair of the bootleggers and upon opening their precious half pints flasks found they were filled with cold tea. Scores of soldiers, sailors and marines, it would seem, had been treated in the same manner. The result was a raid planned solely against the bootleggers of the southwest. That is how the trouble started. And of course, once started, it spread throughout the city.'

CLARIFYING THE BIBLE

Henry Ford said in the course of his examination at Detroit, "I always thought the Bible could be written into clearer language."

The Boston Transcript in this connection says "almost anyone's first reaction to this remark is one of astonishment. Where is the Bible lacking in clearness? The authorized version has been the model of clear and simple English from the day when it was put forth. Macaulay once said that if everything else in the language should perish, the Bible alone would suffice to show the whole extent of the beauty and power of the English tongue.

The remark of Mr. Ford seems at first blush wholly mysterious. But a little reflection suggests the explanation. The language of the Bible is not the language of the street or the counting house of the present day.

Mr. Ford is not the first man to whom the idea of modernizing the language of the Bible has occurred. Modernized versions, at least in a fragmentary way, have been seriously attempted. In them the "thees" and "thous" have to go, and "eth" gives place to "ed" or "t. In them phrases such as "thy rod and thy staff they comfort me" undergo translation into such lingo as this: "I feel that I am all right when you have got hold of me." Alas for the Fordian idea! No one will have such versions; and they are useless as they are insolent, for if the Bible were translated into the lingo of the day, it would have to be retranslated into another lingo for the next generation, and the tangled mess that would result would not be conducive to clearness. If Mr. Ford still thinks of a clarifying of the Bible in this manner, he must think again."

Soldier Electcuted as he Tries to Save Kite for Boys

Trenton, Jy 29.—Attempt on the part of Prvae Frank L. Goughran of Boston, torescue a kite from a 22 foot pole a Princeton avenue resulted in hisdeath, in view of his bride of two ays and his father-in-law. The briegroom was caught between live wires, and his death was almost istantaneous.

Boys were flying kites, and the strings becme entangled. There was a debateas how the kites were to be saved, and through kindness for Benjamin Rich, 13 years old, and Michael Constlcon, the soldier undertook torescue the lives.

Goughran as stationed at Camp Dix for a wile, and while there became acquainted with Miss Beatrice Chamberlain daughter of Samuel Chamberlain whom he married two days ago.

SPRUCING UP THE FLIVVER

How about your motor car? Of course you et her lose class somewhat during the war. It was unpatriotic to use labor or paint on your car at a time when American industry was working at top speed to produce the materia necessary for the winning of the war.

But the war is over. Labor is no longer scarce. In fact there are 10,000 soldiers being dismissed every day from he service, and these men will have rather a difficult time of it until the industries of the country can reinstate them into civilian jobs. Now is the time to spruce up that motor car, to put that necessary coat of paint on and to overhaul it generally. You will be doing a patriotic service to the country in getting a soldier or two to do this work for you. Colonel Arthur Woods, Assistant to the Secretary of War, recommends the employment of ex-service men for such reconstruction work.

There is no more need for emergency economy. Minor repairs add to the life of things. Paint adds life to the body of the car. Spruce up your engine. Renew those worn parts. Your car will go qiucker, will run smoother and wear on it will be lighter.

Materials are expensive now—paints, machine parts, cost more than they used to a few years ago. But they will save more than their value in their service to the car.

Don't wait for materials to come down. They won't. Rather is the contrary to be expected. And if you wait a little too long, you will have to put on an extra coat of paint, and more parts will wear out. "Spruce up" your car now.

NARROW VIEWS ON SABBATH

Philadelphia Preacher Advocates Personal Liberty in Observance of Day

Philadelphia, July 29.—Criticism of those persons who try to force their own idea of Sabbath observance on others, was made Sunday by Rev. Dr. George F. Pentecost, in a sermon delivered at the Bethany Presbyterian Church, Twenty-second and Bainbridge streets where he is pastor.

"It is not right," said Dr. Pentecost," that the minority of people in a communitly or in a country should force their views on the majority. Christians, who make up from one third to less than half of the population of this country, have no right to say how the rest of the people should spend their Sabbath."

ESCAPE INJURY IN CRASH

Passenger-Laden Airship Turns During 2,000-foot Volplane

Carrying twelve passengers, a large Handley-Page bombing machine, twin-motored, was forced by engine trouble to make a precipitous descent from a 2,000 foot altitude into the field of E. M. Pennington, a former, living three miles out of Kinsale, Va., which is about eighty miles from Washington.

In landing the huge airship turned turtle, and although her passengers were badly shaken, none, so far as has been determined, sustained any serious injury

Lieut. Robert H. Sells, the pilot, was returning from Washington to Hampton, Va., from whence he had set out on a return trip. In coming he covered the distance from Hampton, Va., about 170 miles air line, in 100 minutes.

"I Wouldn't Go Camping Without Rat Snap," Says Ray White.

"Wife and I spent our vacation camping last summer, smell of cooking brought rats. We went to town, got some RAT-SNAP, broke up cakes put it outside our tent. We got the rats alright—big fellows." Farmers, store-keepers, housewives, should use RAT-SNAP." Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by R. E. Knight and Son, Alexandria; Mankin Store, Falls Church.

CHILD'S SLAYER MENACED

Mobs Clamor for Prisoner Who Admits Slaying 6 Year Old Girl

Chicago, July 29.—Thomas Fitzgerald, confessed slayer of 6 year old Janet Wilkinson, was formally charged with murder yesterday.

Slightly stoopped, spectacled and ascetic appearing, Fitzgerald coldly told the court he had nothing to say. He was held without bail for the grand jury.

Contrasted with Fitzgerald's coolness was the rage of Janet's father. Throughout the arraignment he struggled with two detectives, arguing with them in undertones. He appeared ready to spring upon the man who for five days held him in a torment of suspense while an entire city hunted the lost girl.

How Chicago was stirred was indicated by the crowds collecting wherever Fitzgerald was scheduled to appear. Outside the coroner's office a mob collected, yelling "Bring him out, don't try him, give him to us!"

Crowds gathered also in the county building and at the police station where he was held.

A heavy guard surrounded the confessed slayer, escorting him from cell and jury room by back ways.

FLASH KILLS KITE FLIER

Boy Struck Dead by Lightning Conveyed by Wet String.

Scranton, Pa., July 29.—Leo Zoyak, 14 years old, of North Scranton, was instantly killed Saturday night by lightning while flying a kite in a field near his home. The string of the kite had become wet by the rain, and while Zoyak was trying to pull the kite down it was struck by lightning, the result being that the wet string acted as a conveyor of the electriity, killing the boy.

During the storm No. 6 school, in Dunmore, was struck by lightning and badly damaged by fire, while in Dickson City roofs were carried off several buildings. Several persons were struck by lightning.

TORNADO ON LONG ISLAND

Mineola, L. I., July 29.—Lightning yesterday afternoon struck a steel hangar at Hazlehurst Field, housing the Martin bombing plane in which Captain Roy N. Francis was prepared to make a one-stop flight across to United States, starting on Friday morning. The machine was completely demolished except for its motors, but it will be replaced as soon s possible and the flight made notwithstanding.

Two other bombing planes were also wrecked by the lightning, which hurled fragments of steel for a distance of half a mile.

Sweeping along from the northwest and passing over the spot where the British dirigible R-34 was moored while in this country the s wrecked virtually everything in its path.

SHOOTS HER OWN HEAD OFF.

Woman Commits Shocking Suicide With Shotgun

Sinking Springs, Pa., July 29.—Brooding over domestic troubles, Mrs. Howard Trexler, aged 22 years ended her life by blowing her head almost from her body with the aid of a shotgun, at her home in Lower Heidelberg township, two miles north of this town.

She placed the barrel of the gun in her mouth and then released the trigger with the toes of her right foot. The heavy charge tore off the whole top of her head.

MURDERER GETS ONE YEAR

Mrs. Dunn Sentenced to Prison After Pleading Guilty

Pittsfield, Mass., July 29.—The trial of Mrs. Gladys C. Dunn for the shooting of her 3 year old boy was brought to an abrupt close yesterday when, sobbing, the mother unexpectedly pleaded guilty to manslaughter and was sentenced to one year at hard labor at the Pitsfield House of Correction.

Soon after the court convened John Noxen, Mrs. Dunn's attorney, announced Mrs. Dunn desired to change her plea of not guilty of second degree murder, on which charge she was being tried, to one of guilty of manslaughter.

The trial had progressed three days, and the defense had pleaded that Mrs. Dunn was insane when she shot her little boy.

Trembling and ashen, Mrs. Dunn yesterday was led to the petitioner's place.

In a voice that scarcely could be heard at the opposie end of the court, the pretty young mother said:

"Yes—I plead guilty to manslaughter."

She seemed on the verge of collapsing and swayed slightly. Her husband rushed to her side and led her to a chair.

Justice Brown, in pronouncing sentence, said:

"In view of what I believe the defendant has suffered and what she will suffer, the court is disposed to leniency. Nothing that I could impose probably could add to the torture she has already suffered. The court thereby accepts the plea of guilty to manslaughter and sentences the defendant to one year in the Pittsfield House of Correction."

Mrs. Dunn is the wife of Allan C. Dunn, former magazine editor and novelist.

$15,000 DAMAGE BY HAIL

Crops Riddled. Lightning Destroys Barns, Calf, 7 Cows, 2 Horses Killed, Man Hurt

Hazelton, Pa July 29.—Crops in Butler Valley last night had the appearance of having been riddled with shrapnel following the worst hail storm that has passed over that section in five years. Much damage occurred to all kinds of fruit and hailstones fell as large as walnuts in such quantities that people shoveled them up and got enough ice to make ice cream.

The barns of Clark Eroh, at Hobbie; John Daubert, at Dorrance, and Albert Toltrock, near White Haven, were destroyed by lightning. All the season's crops and one calf, seven cows and two horses were burned, the total loss being estimated at $15,000.

Jacob Bobalis, of Lattimer, was struck by a bolt which crossed his right arm, on which he was leaning against the window, passed over his chest and thence through his left leg to the floor. He was partially paralyzed.

FOOD RIOT IN HAVRE

Havre, July 29.—Officials of the Federated Trades Union went to the wholesale market yesterday and obliged the producers to sell them a quantity of foodstuffs at prices varying from 5 to 75 per cent. under the average market price.

They then took the foodstuffs to one of the public market places, where they sold it at cost price. In the excitement arising from the operation of crowd partially pillaged a farm cart laden with produce and a baker's store.

BOY KILLED BY SHELL

Five-Year-Old Playing With Smaller Brother Dies Without Coherent Account

Lancaster, Pa., July 29.—While playing with a loaded shell that he had obtained in an unknown manner, Harlan, five-year-old son of Martin Bradley, of Wakefield, was fatally wounded when it exploded.

He was playing in the barn with a younger brother when the accident occurred and ran to the house with a gaping wound in his chest, expiring before a physician could reach him.

The brother is too young to give a coherent account of the tragedy.

"How I Cleared the Mill of Rats," By J. Tucker, R. I.

"As night watchman believe I have seen more rats than any man. Dogs wouldn't dare go near them. Got $1 pkg. of RAT-SNAP, inside of 6 weeks cleared them all out. Killed them by the score every night. Guess the rest were scared away. I'll never be without RAT-SNAP." Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by R. E. Knight and Son, Alexandria; Mankin Store, Falls Church.

CHILD EATS PILLS; DIES

Girl of Four Years Thought Pellets in Bottle Were Candy

Philadelphia, July 29.—Believing sugar-coated pills in a bottle she found in her mother's bureau, to be candy, Mary Gibbons, four years old of 2646 Manton street, ate several of the pellets and died shortly afterward at the Polyclinic Hospital. The pills contained strychnine.

Mrs. Gibbons, who had been taking the pills as medicine, left the child playing in a room to go on a short errand. When she returned, the girl said that she had a headache from the heat. While the mother went to get a cold towel to put on the child's head the little girl was taken with severe convulsions. Then, the child told her mother she had eaten candy she found in her mother's room. A hurried investigation disclosed the fact that the bottle containing the pills had been upset and several were missing. The mother then picked up the child and ran with her into the street, where she hailed a passing motorcycle, which took the child to the hospital.

SWEPT BY TORNADO

Houses Wrecked and Considerable Damage Reported

Rainfall of a short duration, but of heavy volume, yesterday afternoon brought surcease from the oppressive heat that for forty-eight hours had held Philadelphia and its environs in its grasp. The precipitation visited virtually every section of Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey and at some points was especially violent.

Accompanied by a terrific wind storm, the downpour seemed to centralize its wrath on Mount Ephraim, a suburb of Gloucester, N. J. Two men are believed to have lost their lives nearby when the wind, assuming the proportions of a tornado, leveled a house in which they were working and played havoc with the surrounding country.

The men who are believed to have lost their lives are carpenters, who are said to live in Philadelphia. They were employed on the erection of a house for Andrew Creek, a Philadelphian, when the storm broke. The house was demolished and their bodies are believed to be buried beneath the wreckage.

WITNESS SLAIN

Rome, July 29.—A forest ranger named Wolf, who is said to have witnessed the mysterious death of Crown Prince Marie Vetsera at Meyerling in 1889, has just been killed at Brd in a dispute with Bosnian workmen, according to a dispatch received today from Agram.

Crown Prince Rudolph and Countess Marie Vetsera, a young Hungarian beauty, with whom he had been carrying on a clandestine love affair, were found shot to death at a hunting lodge near Meyerling. Details of the affair were shrouded in impentrable mystery, although various versions of the affair found their way into print from time to time.

The forest ranger Wolf, who was reported to have witnessed the tragedy, was said to have been put under oath by Emperor Francis Joseph never to disclose the details of the affair. He was retired on a liberal pension and so far as known had faithfully kept the pledge he ad given to the aged Emperor.

Johnstown ,Pa., July 29.—Four men in a touring car attempted a hold-up with guns in the Bolivar National Bank, west of here, at 1.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but were driven off after an exchange of ten or twelve shots with the cashier, Edgar Sutton.

President W. B. Hammond and Vice President Frank Hammond were also in the bank at the time. Frank Hammond and Ruth McHale, a clerk, were forced into a vault by bullets. No one was injured in the firing.

Police of Westmoreland, Indiana and Cambria counties are searching for the bandits, who got away in their touring car.

BANDITS RETURN BOY

Ransom Paid on Advice of Mexico Which Promises to Reimburse Father

Washington, July 29.—Philip Thompson, the 14 year old son of John West Thompson, an American citizen, has been returned to his parents by the Mexican bandits who kidnapped him. The kidnapping took place last Thursday within thirty miles of Mexico City where Thompson has a large ranch, the boy being held for 1,500 pesos ransom.

The unusual feature of the case is that the Mexican foreign office suggested to Thompson that he pay the ransom, and informed him that it would reimburse him. The State Department's announcement of the return of young Thompson said:

"A dispatch from the American Embassy at Mexico City announced the release was effected by the payment of the 1500 pesos demanded, the foreign office of Mexico recommending payment of this ransom for fear the bandits might murder Thompson. The foreign office has agreed to refund the amount of the ransom and to take measures for capture and punishment of the bandits.
